

OPS Bulletin

Fuel Pit Damage

June 26, 2019

As a reminder to all airlines, service providers and ground handlers, do not drive cargo loaders over fuel pits as they can cause damage to the structures.

The figure on the right illustrates the damage that the fuel pits can sustain, potentially rendering them unserviceable for an operating flight.

Kindly advise all employees that operate cargo loaders and ensure that they steer clear of fuel pits on the ramp.